

Exposure Group No. 10

The Church Districts of Plön-Segeberg and Ostholstein invite you to focus on justice as a common path.

The church district of Plön-Segeberg comprises of 35 parishes with a total of 126.600 church members, 69 pastors, 2 deans, 930 employees, 200 employees in diaconal services and 3.500 people being engaged in work on honorary basis. The church district of Ostholstein comprises of 36 parishes with a total of 116.000 church members, 70 pastors, 2 deans, 850 employees and 4.000 people being engaged in church work on honorary basis.

During the program issues of social justice, intergenerational justice and justice to asylum seekers will be addressed as issues of global justice.

Whom you will meet:

Hosts, partnership groups, deans and church district representatives, ecumenical committees and people from other walks of life.

Social Justice: Excursion to a church care center for helping the psychologically ill people

Global Justice: Meeting with asylum seekers and their helpers

A Future of Worldwide Justice for the Young:

Visit to the "Evangelische Jugend-,Freizeit- und Bildungsstätte Koppelsberg"

The Exposure Team will be accommodated in private quarters for the first night and change later on Sunday afternoon towards the common place at the conference center in "Seehof".

If you want to join the Exposure Team introduced to you above, please mark one of the circles according to your priority list!

Name:

- First Priority
- Second Priority
- Third Priority