

Exposure Group No. 9

The Church District of Lübeck-Lauenburg invites you to focus on justice in society and to follow traces of history

The church district of Lübeck-Lauenburg comprises of two deaneries: There are 23 parishes within the deanery and town of Lübeck, this city of the medieval „Hanse“ is the second largest city in Schleswig-Holstein, and 33 parishes in the deanery of Lauenburg. According to this there are urban as well as rural congregations in this region. In addition to the church's ministry in the parishes there are also specialized ministries which take care of special tasks for church work in relation to different target groups in society.

The exposure program will focus on the region of Lübeck and its urban quarters.

We want to look into the matter of justice under three aspects:

- Looking for justice – flight, migration and intercultural diversity as fields of work for the church
- Building justice – economics in order to live together , church in the urban society
- Justice without exception – Inclusion as learning field for the church and for the society

The Exposure Team will be accommodated at a central point in a “Traveller-Hotel”.
